ALMA MATER

In Georgia where the mountains blue
Are pointing toward the sky,
There stands our Alma Mater dear,
There's where our hearts all lie.

We're true to thee, dear Y. H. C.
Thy fame is our delight,
We hail thee, Alma Mater dear,
Thy purple and thy white.

Though time may pass o'er these dear
halls,
We'll still come back to thee,
And still we'll cherish memories
Of our days at Y. H. C.

◆ ◆ ◆ and in our plans

The above picture shows the plans for what will be to all persons who love Young Harris a dream become a reality. By next fall this addition to the campus—a modern, spacious, steam-heated gymnasium—will be completed to give Young Harris College a permanent athletic center. It will afford the students the greatly needed opportunity for recreation.

The construction of this building is being made possible by the generous gifts of alumni and friends and through the usual diligent work of the Board of Trustees, who all have found here an enchantment—a spirit that they wish to perpetuate.

Foreword

In this twenty-eighth edition of the Enotab, we have attempted to show evidences of the spirit of Young Harris College.

The myth goes that Young Harris, surrounded by the mountains of North Georgia, is nestled deep in a valley known as "The Enchanted Valley."

For the students, faculty, and alumni, we have attempted to picture this enchantment in various forms of the college life and activity.

THE OLD SOUTH

Still loyal to the Confederacy (1), a group of Southern belles (2) banded together after THE WAR to make plans to replenish their exhausted resources. After all, THE WAR was now just water over the dam (3). Miss June (4) thought there were still resources not yet uncovered, and Miss Jeanne (5), fr'm AUGUSSSSSSSSta, didn't care for any other resources as long as she had Bob-AH-by. The Southern scholars, particularly Mr. Harold (6), sought in literature for an escape from the horrors of Reconstruction Days; others, like Miss Edna (7), just couldn't bear to see what the world was coming to and refused to face the issues. To them it seemed that stark terror (8) gripped the nation.

But the South recovered and soon its industries, its schools, and its opportunities were bursting at the seams (9). An occasional lynching and bashing in of heads (?) reached the outside world (10), but the new "crop" of Southern gentlemen (11) was such an industrious, energetic generation that even the skeptics (12) thought that the South might survive if all the "rats" (13) could be exterminated.

THE NEW SOUTH

Today the Y. H. C. campus is typical of the mood and activity of the New South. The modern Southern gentlewoman is interested in literature and life (1); Lee (2) has changed to civilian clothes; the memories of the past are not forgotten: "Sign my annual!" (3); new industries challenge the skill and ingenuity of the college man (4), but there are still a few playboys making "Dixieland" music (5). In some sections there are crowded living conditions (6), but clean-up drives carefully supervised (7) have eliminated any real problems in sanitation except the all-time problem of little boys who get on the bed with their muddy boots! (8)

Jump Ball.

The Young Harris Mountain Lions of 1952-53 placed another sensational season on the record books as they compiled a total of 24 wins and 2 losses. The "Lions" split the cords for a total of 1,942 points during the season for the outstanding average of 84.4 points per game.

Murphy McManus, an all-round player on offense and defense, led the individual scoring column with a total of 592 points for a 25.5 point average per game.

Talmadge Lee captured second place honors with a respectable total of 336 points for a 14.6 point average. Billy Sands accounted for 276 points during the season, and his average of 12 points per game was third high.

The "Lions" also brought more honors to Y. H. C. by winning the Georgia State Junior College Tournament at Statesboro, Georgia. This victory marked the first time a North Georgia team has won the title since 1936. Young Harris gained this title by ousting Georgia Southwestern in the quarterfinals, 83-75; downing Armstrong in the semi-finals, 87-60; and going on to beat top-seeded Middle Georgia in the finals by a score of 84-73. McManus and Lee, because of their magnificent play in the tournament, were chosen on the all-tournament team.

In reward for this excellent record, the Y. H. C. team was invited to participate in the Southeastern Junior College Tournament in Athens, Tennessee. Y. H. C. defeated Tennessee Wesleyan on their court 66-63 in the last few minutes of play. The next day, Young Harris met Pikeville, Kentucky, and lost by a narrow margin of 58-61 in a five-minute overtime. Because of his outstanding performance, Billy Sands was chosen on the all-conference team.

EDITOR'S NOTE

The ENOTAH staff and I should like to express our sincere appreciation to the people who have made this twenty-eighth edition of the ENOTAH possible:

To our advertisers and to the ones who have helped in getting ads;

To Mr. Young, of Foote & Davies, Inc., to Mr. Gaspar, of Gaspar-Ware Studios, and especially to Mrs. Morgan, of Photo Process Company, for their assistance and interest in carrying out our theme;

To those staff members who have worked consistently and have been willing to help in any way;

To Mr. Humphreys, for his great help in making many of the photographs in this book;

To Mr. Harris, for his assistance to Mr. Humphreys in planning the photography;

To Mr. Lewis, for his consistent work and tireless patience in planning the layouts;

To Miss Herren, for her guidance and contribution to this annual and those of the past;

To the students and faculty for their cooperation and interest.

To the above mentioned and to all those who have helped in even the smallest way, I wish to express my sincere appreciation.

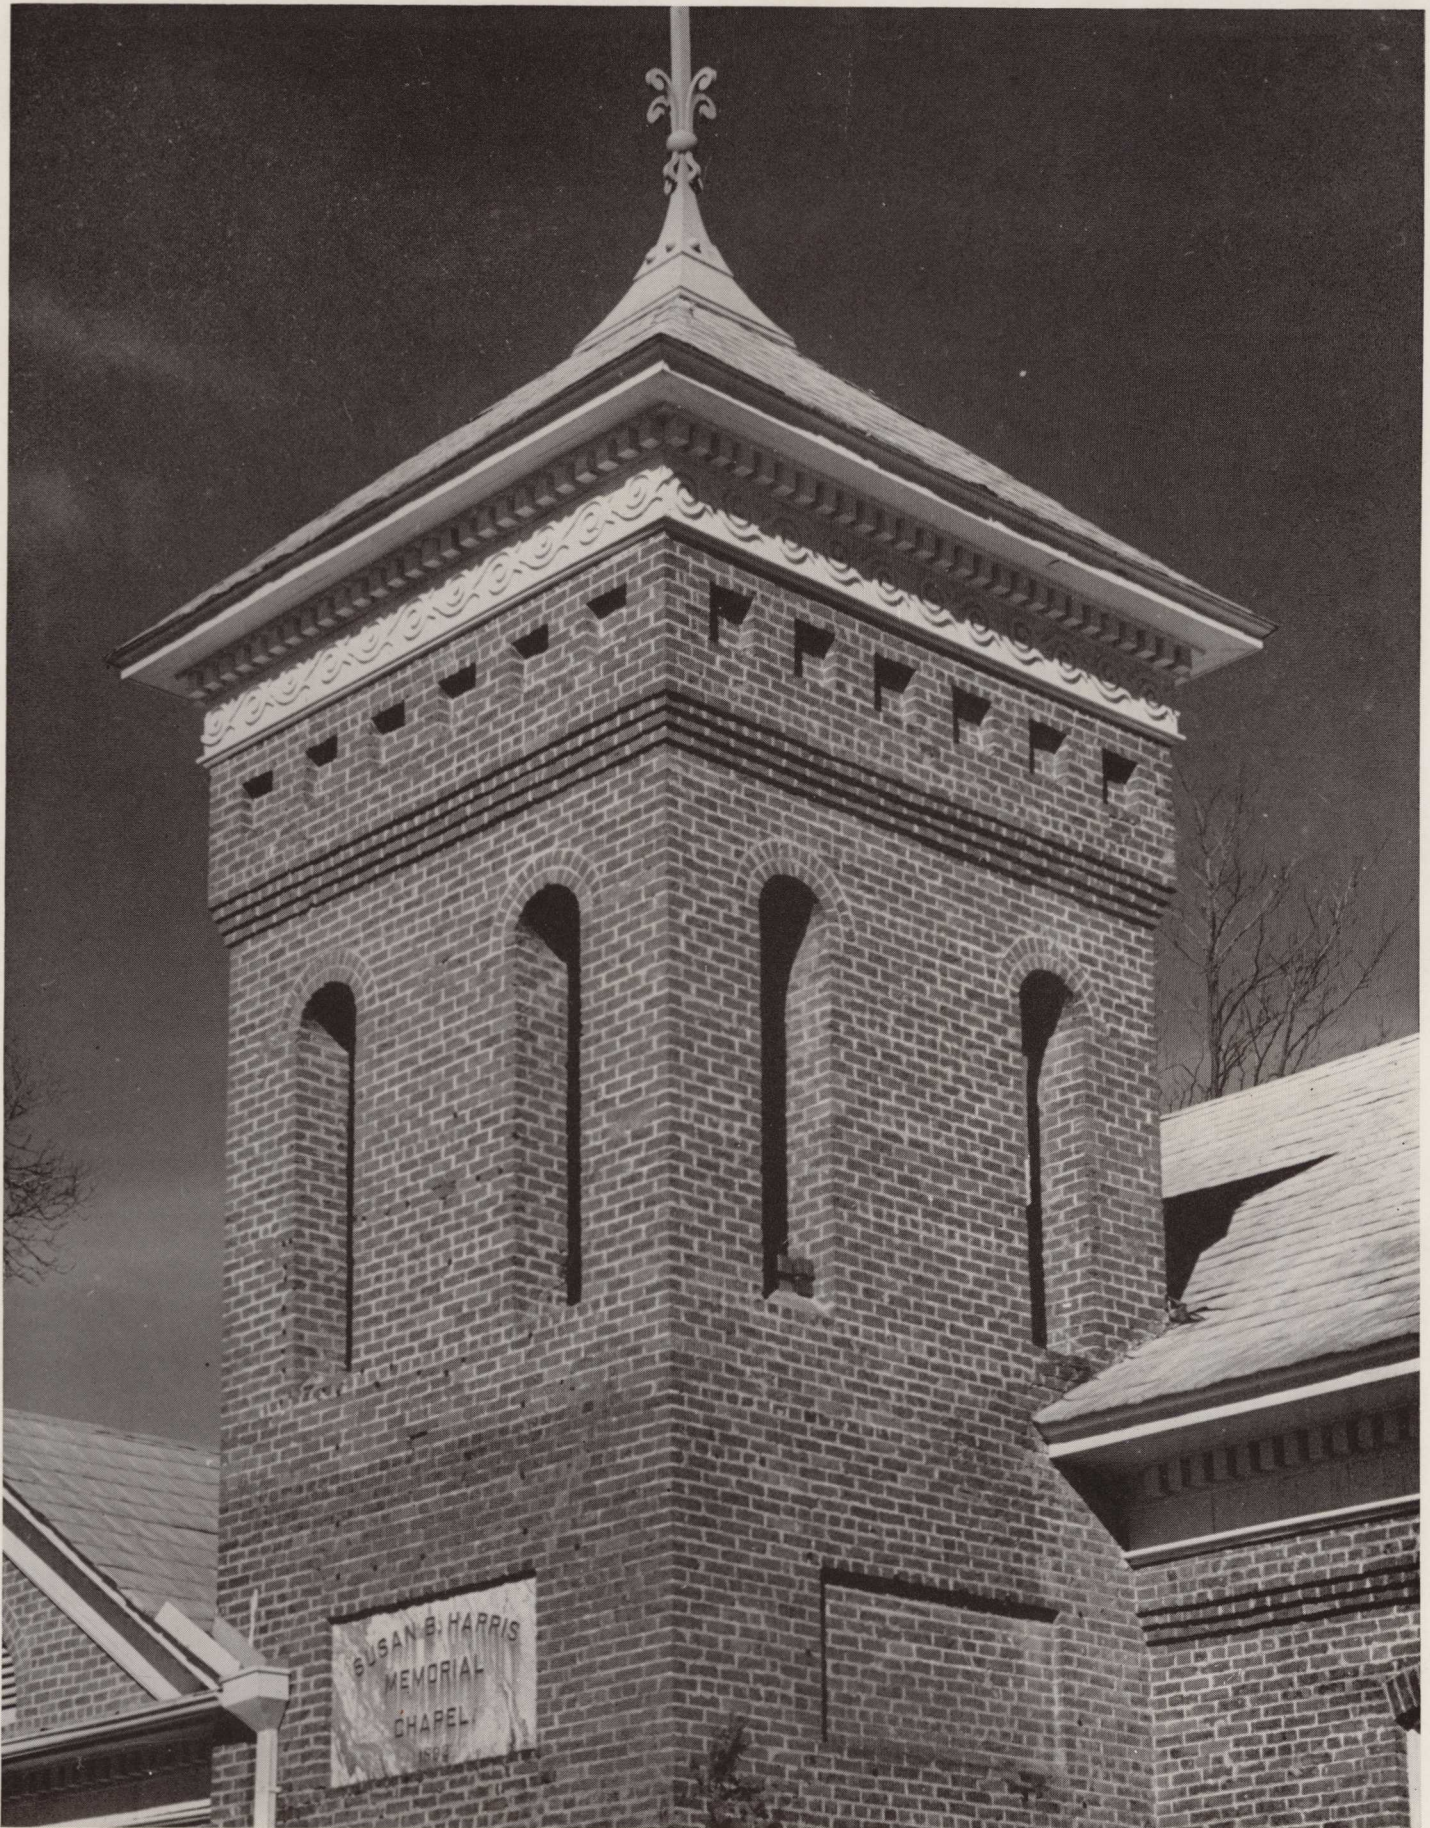

Sincerely,

JUNE CAROLE CAMPBELL
