Our Judges

Local artist, Linda Denison, is a native of Florida but currently resides in beautiful Blairsville, GA. She has been painting since the age of 5 and sold her first work at the age of 12.

A multiple award winner, Linda is proud to be included in private and corporate collections as well as galleries throughout the United States and Europe

Today, her greatest source of inspiration remains her very personal relationship with God. Linda says "Life is an experiment, the more you experiment, the better"

A community leader and hero, John Kuberek worked as an EMT for 8 years then became a fire fighter where he worked for the Douglas Co. Fire Dept as well as the City of Woodstock Fire Dept. In the spring of 2010 John will begin Nursing School at North GA College.

Married for 5 years to his "high school sweetheart", Amy, John currently calls Blairsville, GA his home. He and his wife enjoy riding motorcycles together and living in what they like to call "God's County".

Cara Weldon is from Athens, GA, and a graduate of Oconee Co High School, Class of 2009. She is currently a student at Young Harris College where she is majoring in Science. Her future goals include attending the Medical College of Georgia and becoming a Nurse Practitioner or Physician's Assistant where she plans to work in Developmental Medicine.

In her spare time she enjoys being active, swimming, and hanging out with her friends.

BRANDY NICOLE COOK

Brandy Nicole is from Blairsville, GA and is the daughter of Bud & Karen Cook. She is 13 and is currently a 7th grader at Union County Middle School. She loves funny jokes and her pet macaw, Ziggy and her dog, Max. In her spare time she enjoys singing, art and collecting horse trading cards. When she grows up she wants to join the Air Force then become a veterinarian.

ESTHER GABRIELLE BATYE

Esther was born in Fitzgerald, GA & is the daughter of James & Heather Batye. She is 11 years old. She has lived in many neat places including central Florida and North Pole, Alaska. She is currently a 5th grader at Towns Co Elementary School where she is an A~ B Honor student. She enjoys singing, art, and being an UPWARDS Cheerleader. When she grows up she wants to work in a beauty shop so she can help make people look pretty.

Many
Blessings to you
Miss Esther.
