Alma Mater

In Georgia where the mountains blue
Are pointing toward the sky,
There stands our Alma Mater dear,
There's where our hearts all lie.

We're true to thee, dear Y. H. C.
Thy fame is our delight,
We hail thee, Alma Mater, dear,
Thy Purple and thy White.

Though time may pass o'er these dear halls
We'll still come back to thee
And still we'll cherish memories of
Our days at Y. H. C.

We're true to thee, dear Y. H. C.
Thy fame is our delight,
We hail thee, Alma Mater, dear,
Thy Purple and thy White.

Forward

There are no words nor figures that can record the strength and beauty of Young Harris College. There are, however, words and figures that may give one a framework in which to place personal conceptions of the intangible beauty surrounding any institution of the nature of Young Harris. It is our hope that this annual will give you a simple pleasure; but, more so, it is our hope that this, as all things well applied, may serve as a worthy link in the chain of your character.

OUR COOPERATIVE ADVERTISERS

In acknowledgment of his long record of conscientious and persevering effort toward the development of Young Harris College; and in appreciation of his superb ideals and his remarkably successful steps to promote those ideals, we dedicate this, the 1943 ENOTAH, to W. L. Dance.

Dedication

TO DEAN DANCE

who scared freshmen by slamming his fist on his desk and shouting—"Miss X! You surely don't believe that!!"—who wore a miner's helmet to keep out the rain—who smoked big black cigars—who deprived the boys of radio programs—who was always in a dozen places at one time.
