... "to all we've done
We go down
Memory Lane ..."

Memory of - - -

. . . that reverent walk to church . . .

— that romantic stroll to the long-awaited formal — that exciting pace to the Post Office

— a hesitant ambling to class —

Reminisce —
And you shall — recall —

— those long indulgent hours in "Duckworth" —

— that set which was won or lost! —

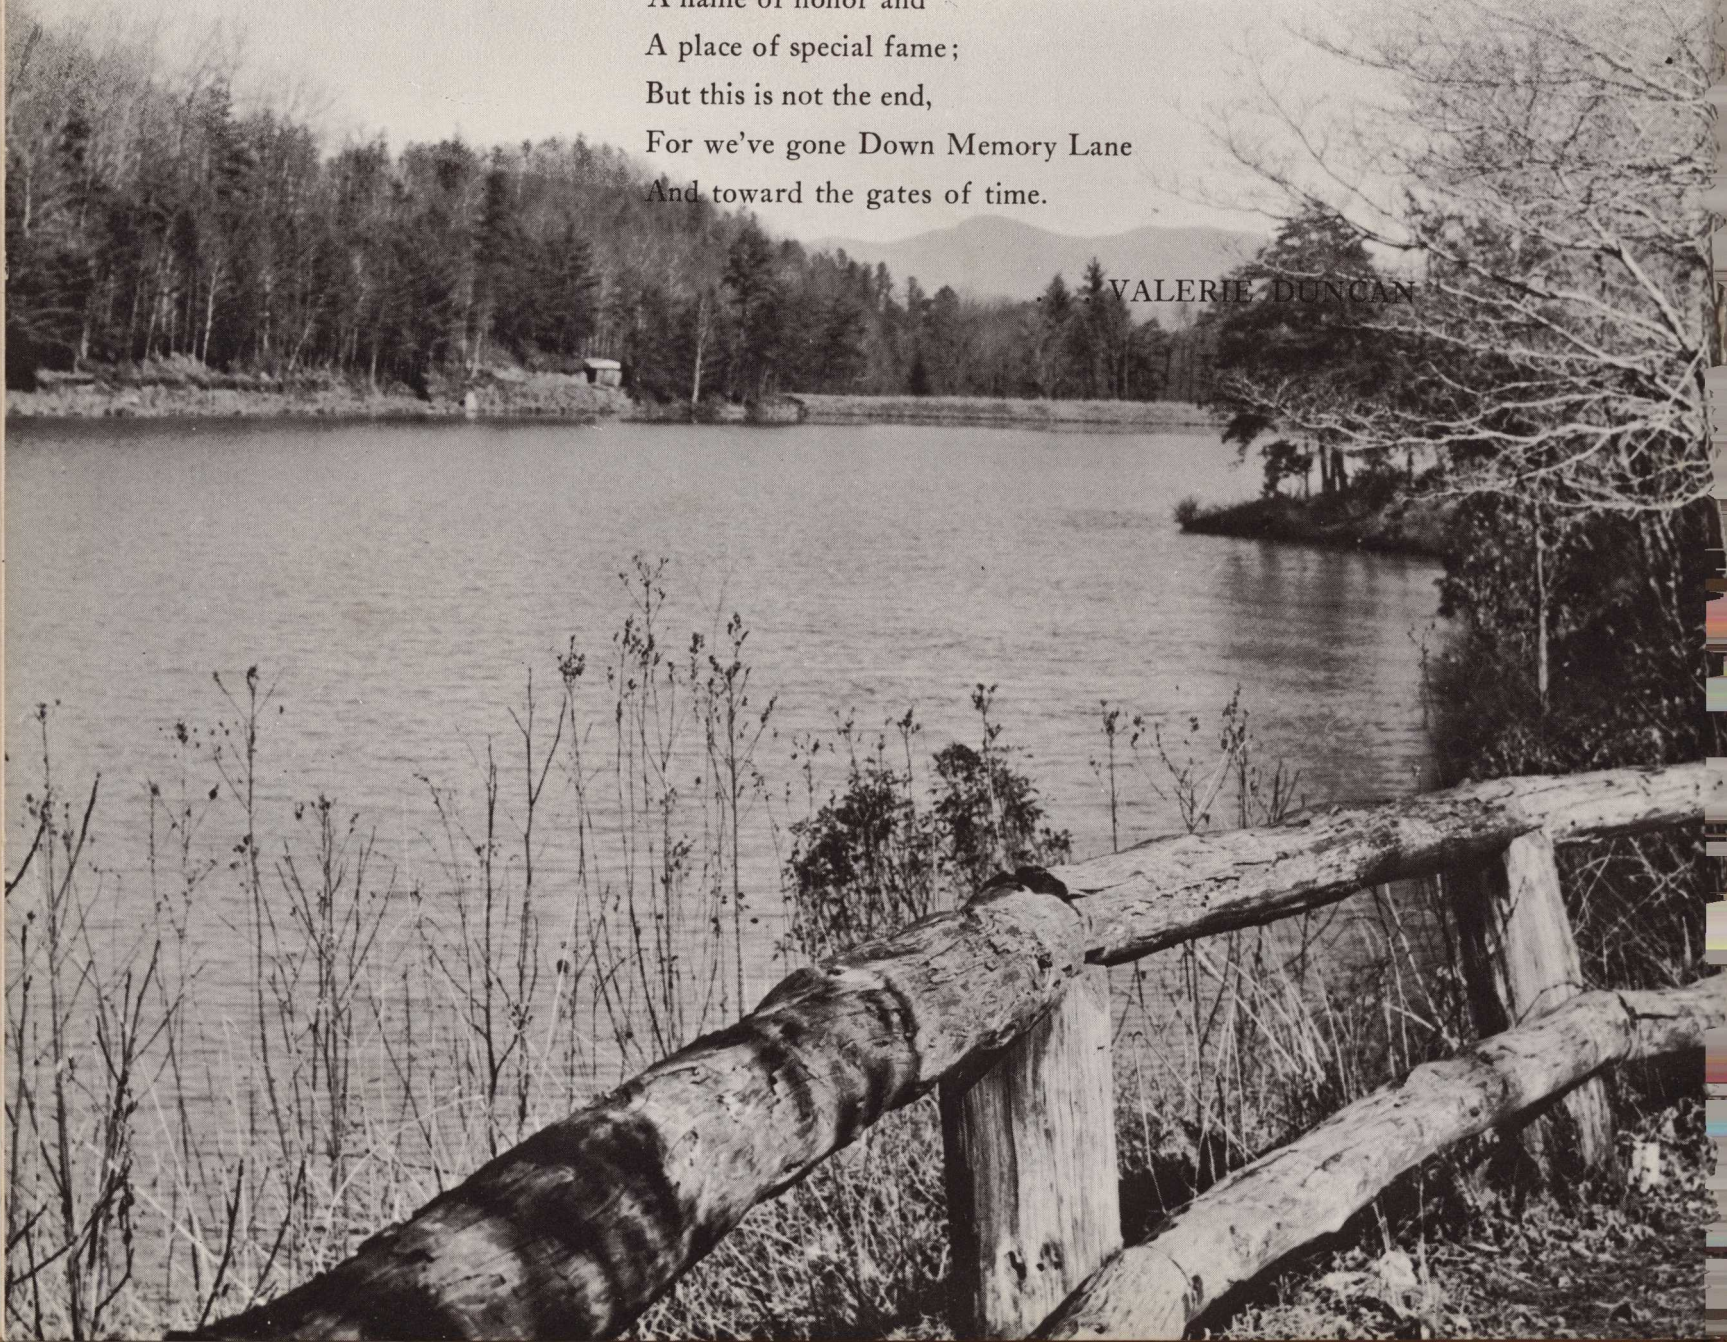

— those minutes of happiness —

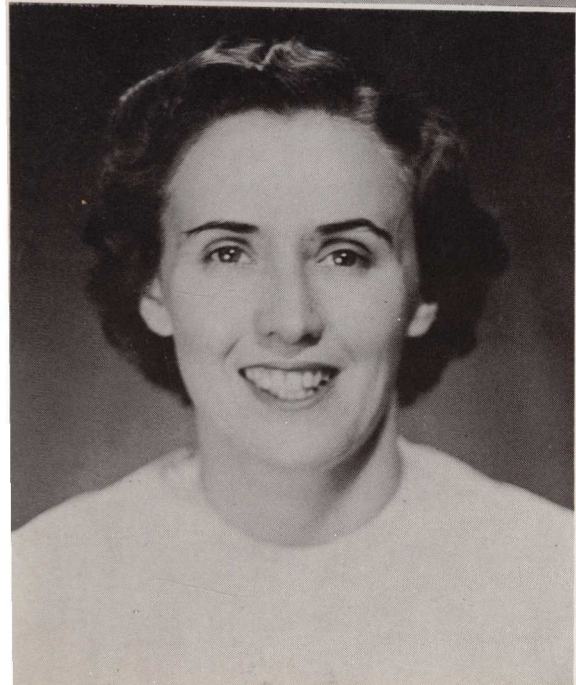

FOREWORD

Through the gates to all we've done
We go Down Memory Lane,
And think again
Of those who led us in
Our scholarship and in our higher aims.
Then we find our thoughts on
Friends who also came to learn
And with us found another home.
Now our classmates bring to mind
Activities we often had in
Work and thought and fellowship and fun;
And then we're off to find
Athletic fields where we tried in games
For the prizes that we sometimes won.
And our best students gained
A name of honor and
A place of special fame;
But this is not the end,
For we've gone Down Memory Lane
And toward the gates of time.

VALERIE DUNCAN

DEDICATION

For your patient understanding, helpful guidance, capable classroom instruction, and devoted interest in us, the students of Young Harris College, we say "thanks."

As an expression of our sincere appreciation of you we, the Enotah staff, gratefully dedicate this 1959 Enotah to you, Miss Austine Hunter.

IN MEMORIAM . . . MR. BYRON HERBERT REECE

NOT THE FULL HARVEST

Not the full harvest heavy on the bough,
Nor the seed ripe for gathering from the seed sown,
But the period of growth, the growing thing alone
Interests me now.

Not the grain gathered and safe in the bin,
Nor the garden untroubled and still in the can,
But the grain in the meadows no higher than the hand,
And the small green apple bitter on the bough
Interests me now.

And not the man older and wiser than I,
Nor the woman unruffled and buried in her years,
But a youth with his heart set upon the sky,
A lover of laughter and a shedder of tears,
And a lass forbidden what she will whisper of
Shall I walk beside and understand and love.

BYRON HERBERT REECE

THE SOCIETIES ARE PROUD OF THEIR PAST

"OUTWARD BOUND"; this year's dramatic endeavor of the Phi Chi-Phi Delta Players.

"MILLER MEMORIAL SPEAKERS" ardently anticipate the announcement of the winner!

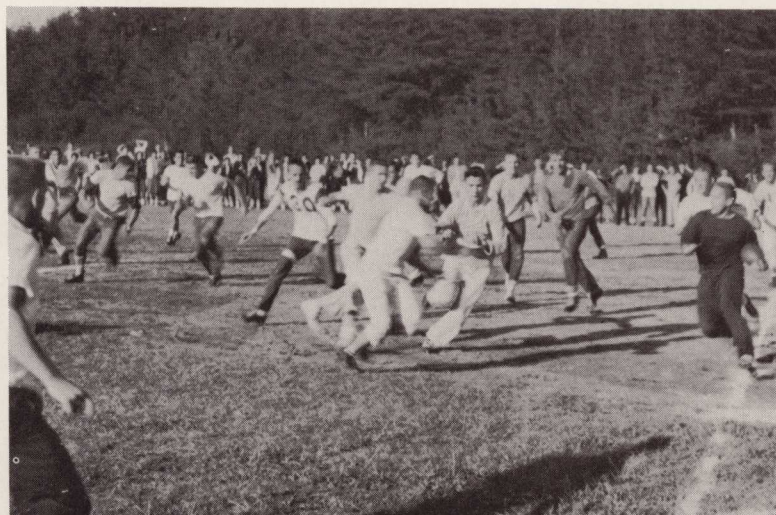

MOVEMENTS of a ballerina reflect the festive mood of the Phi Chi-Phi Delta Banquet.

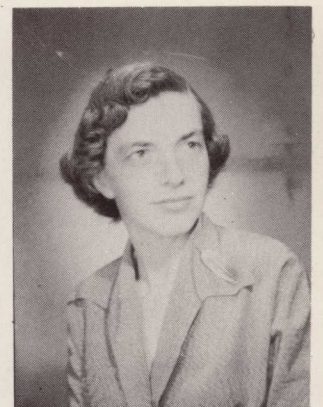

MAGIC of New York creates an appearance of sophistication; voices of Tin Pan Alley echo "Welcome Freshmen."

MRS. MARVIN PROVO
Sponsor of Phi Delta

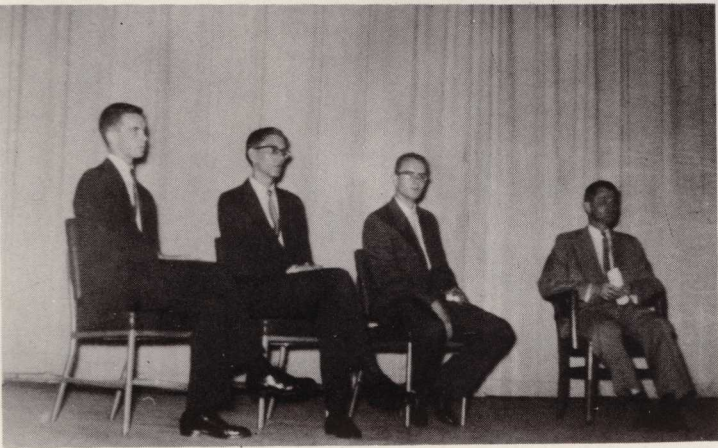

PHI CHI is blocked by TROUBLE during the inter-society football game.

MRS. JOHN M. BANNER
Sponsor of Phi Chi

THE SOCIETIES
REMEMBER NOTABLE EVENTS

"A TEST OF ENDURANCE"; the long wait for the decision of a winner in the Miller Memorial . .

"REMINISCE WITH ME"; a serious aspect of the Susan B.-Young Harris Banquet.

"PITCH THE BALL"; the fervent Young Harris athlete yells during the inter-society baseball game.

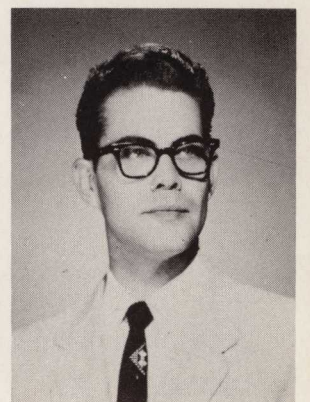

"ORIENTAL INTRIGUE"; the rush party is a beckon for new members.

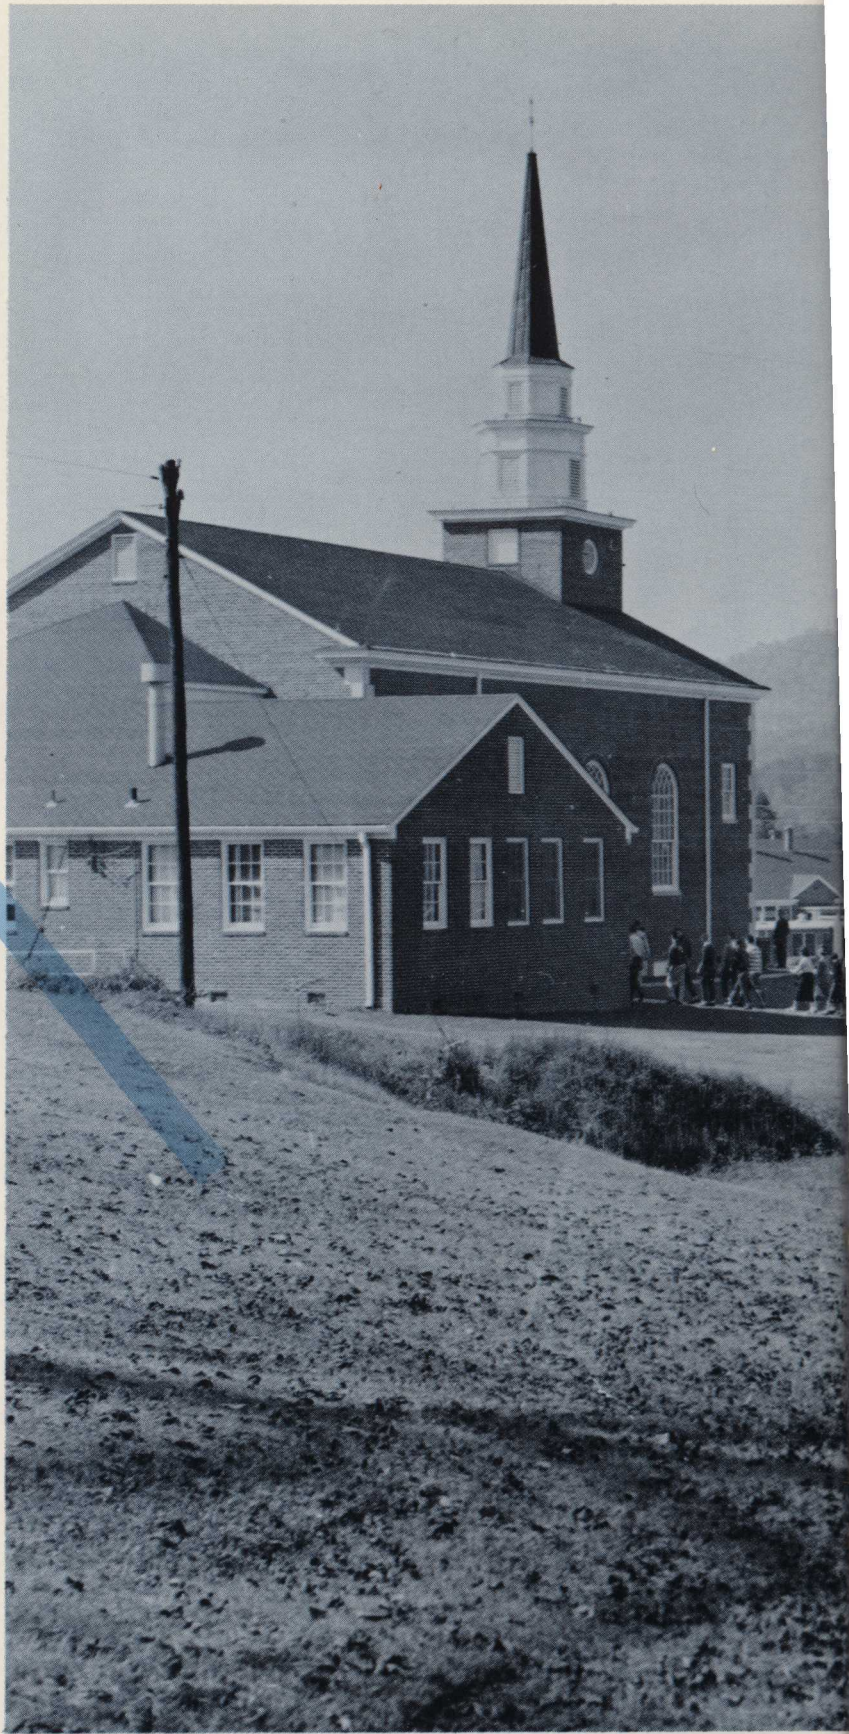

MRS. WILLIAM B. BOHANNON
Sponsor of Susan B.

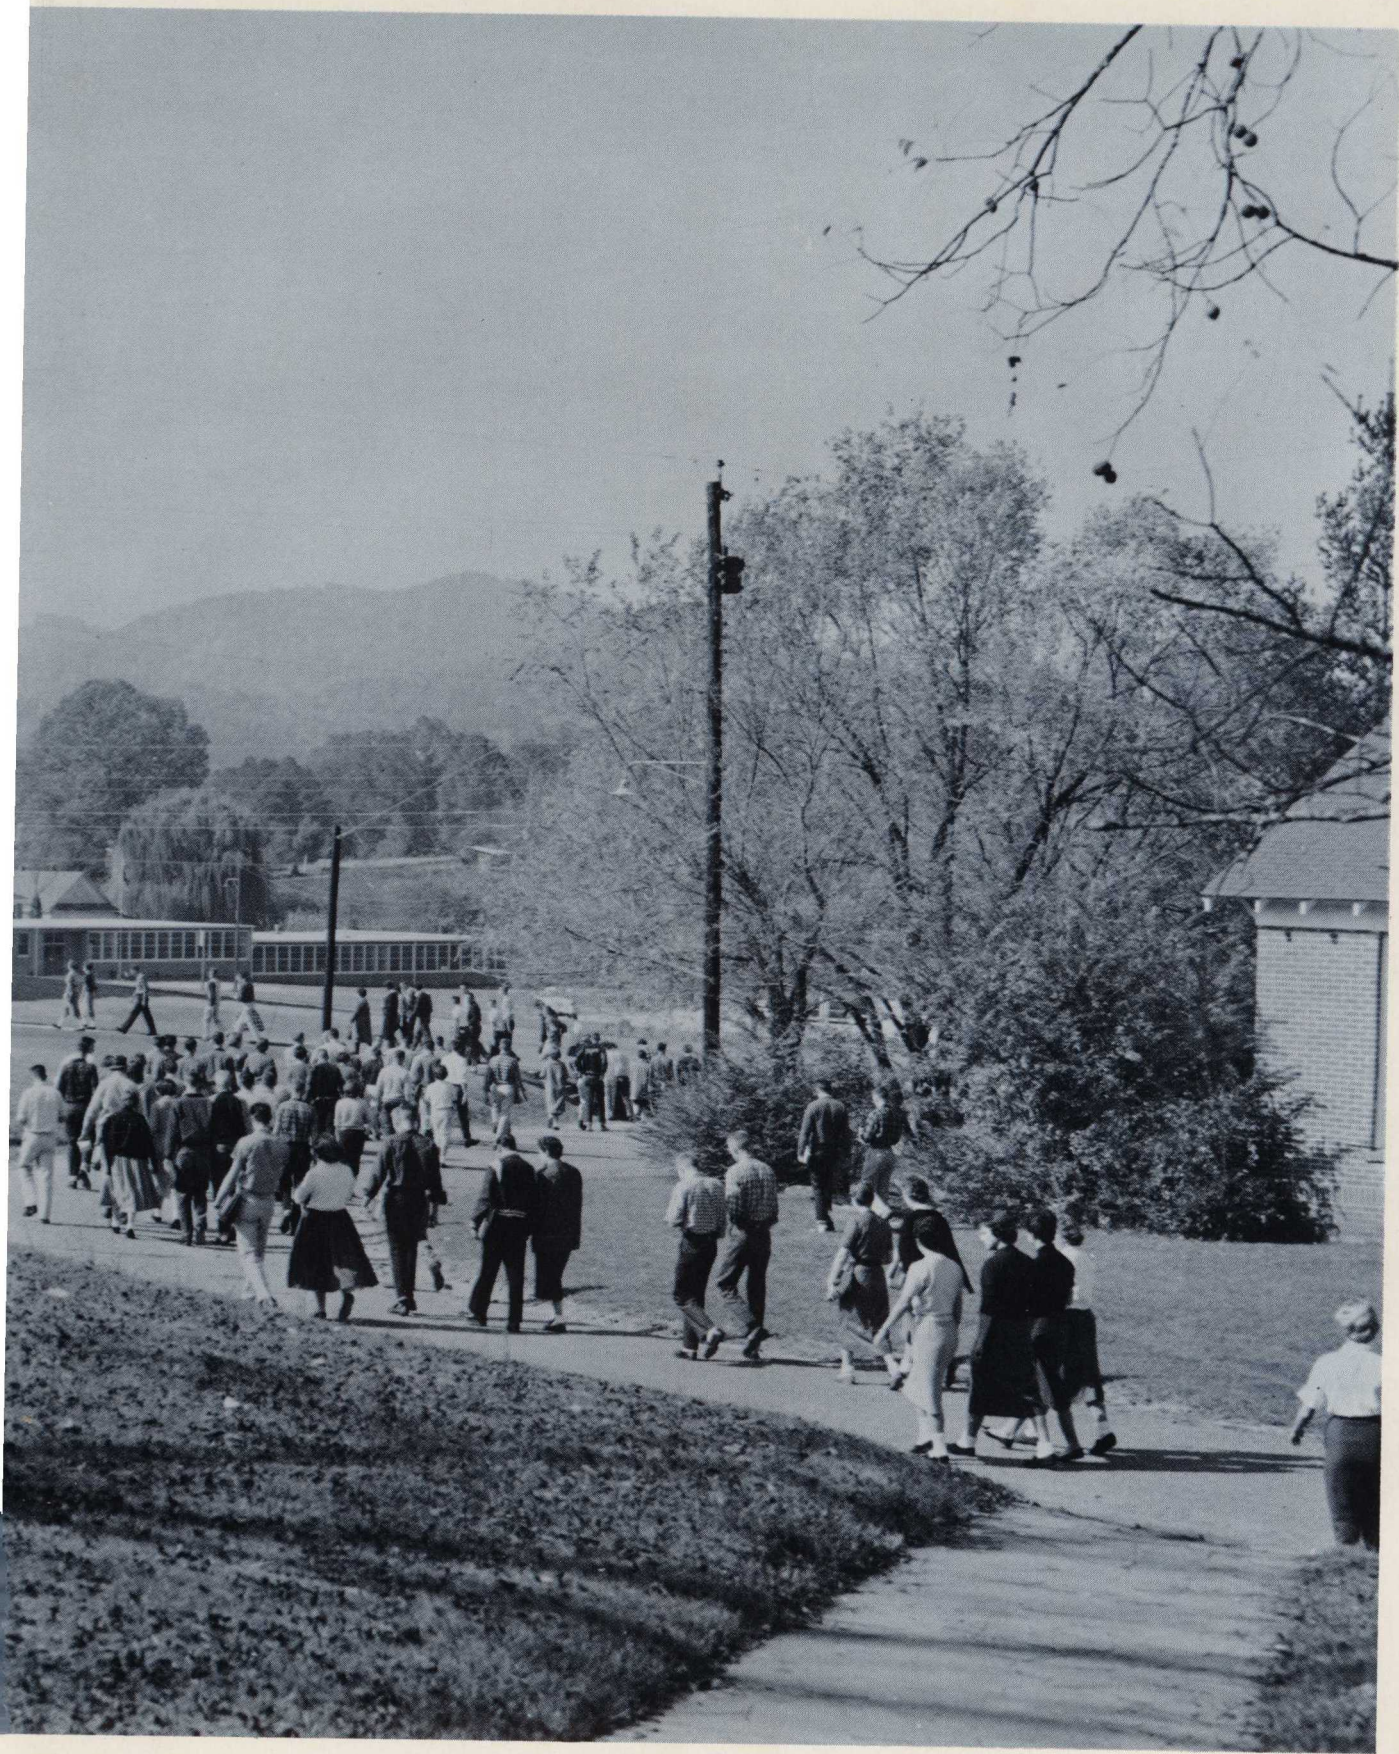

"LOYAL SUSAN B's" entertain guests of the annual banquet—a joyous occasion.

FIRST-OF-YEAR ACTIVITIES

The activities that begin each school year are, perhaps, the most memorable to the student.

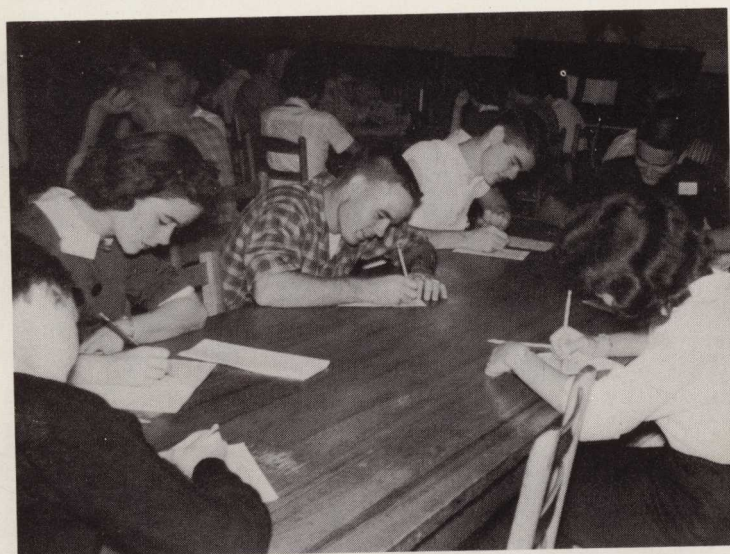

A RESTED CAMPUS awaits the arrival of new students and old friends.

"MAY WE HELP YOU, SIR?" All of Young Harris beams "welcome."

A WELCOMING COMMITTEE explains the procedure of entrance to a freshman.

TEST! TEST! TEST! An unwelcomed experience for freshmen.

A PREVALENT WISH of students in the book line: "Ah, for the shade of the old oak tree!"

A TIME WHEN everyone looks good. A perfect pose.

DO YOU MAN take this woMAN to be your wife? The woman-less wedding is a favorite annual event.

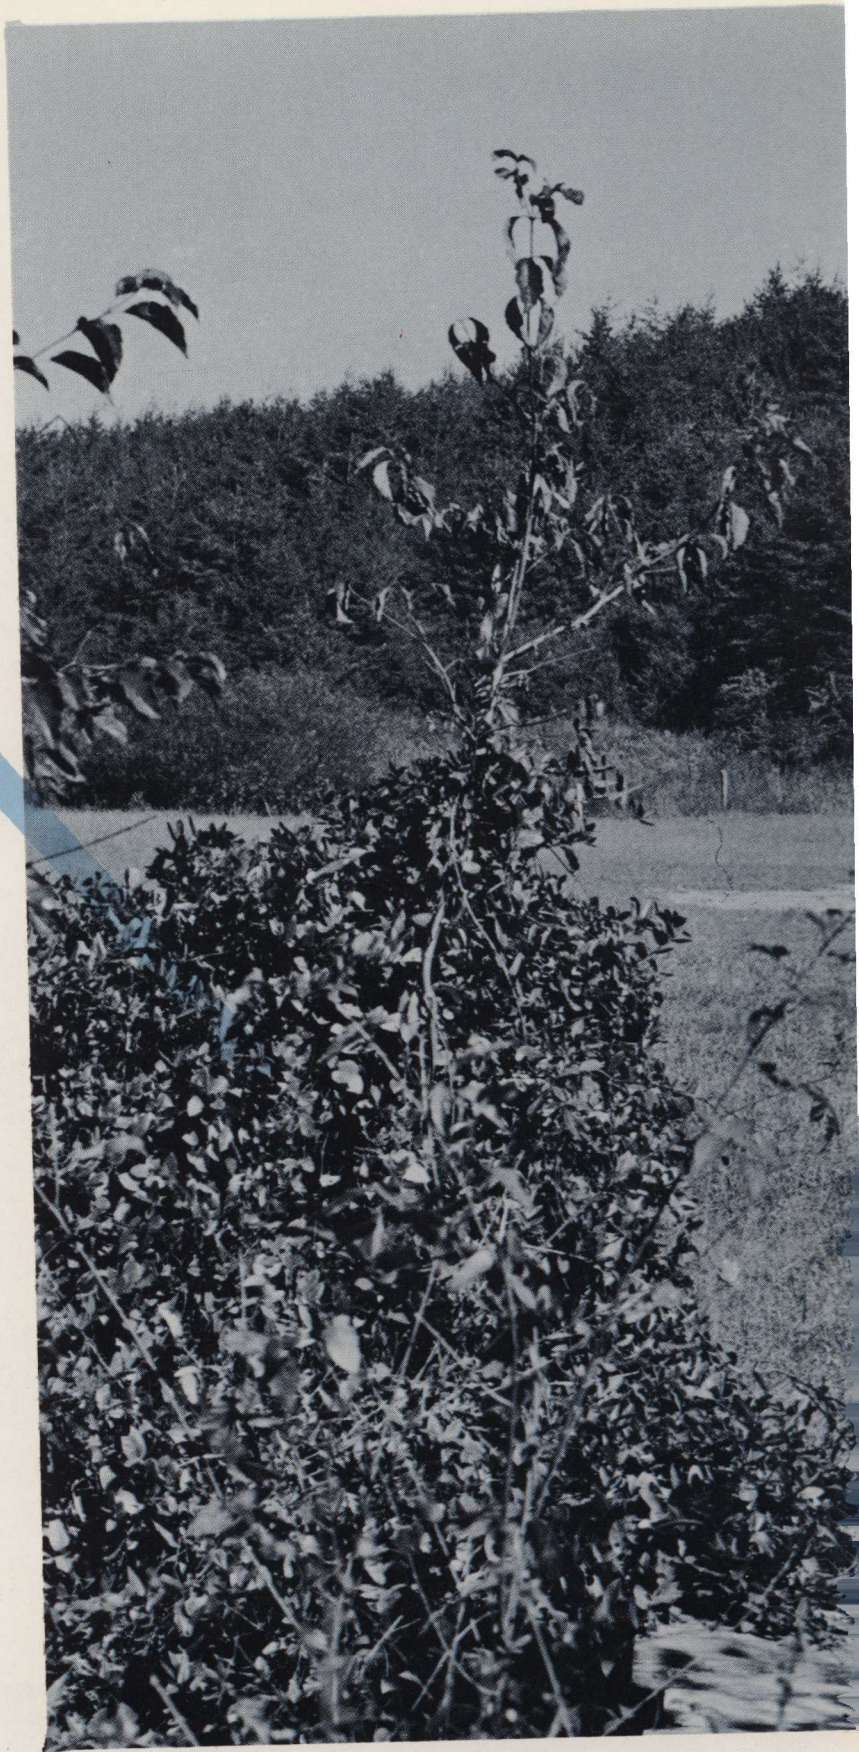

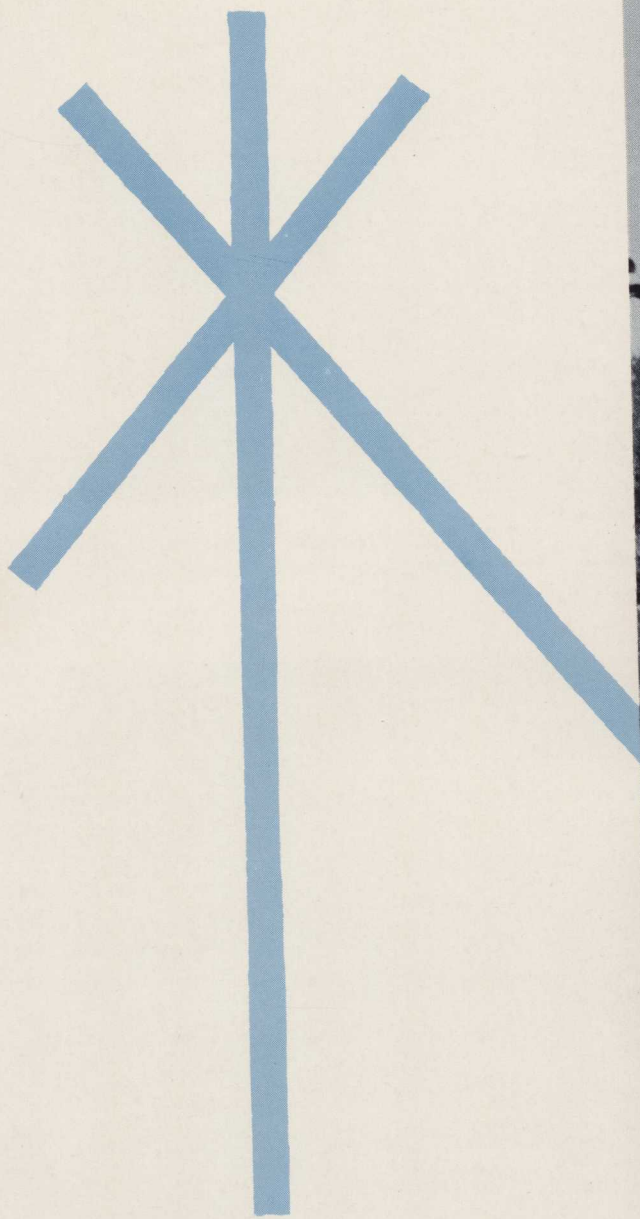

THOUGHTS OF THE SEA: a warm embrace; and beautiful music; constitute a memorable occasion.

PERPETUAL POWER; paddled motion; and a "rat" becomes a "SPAT"!

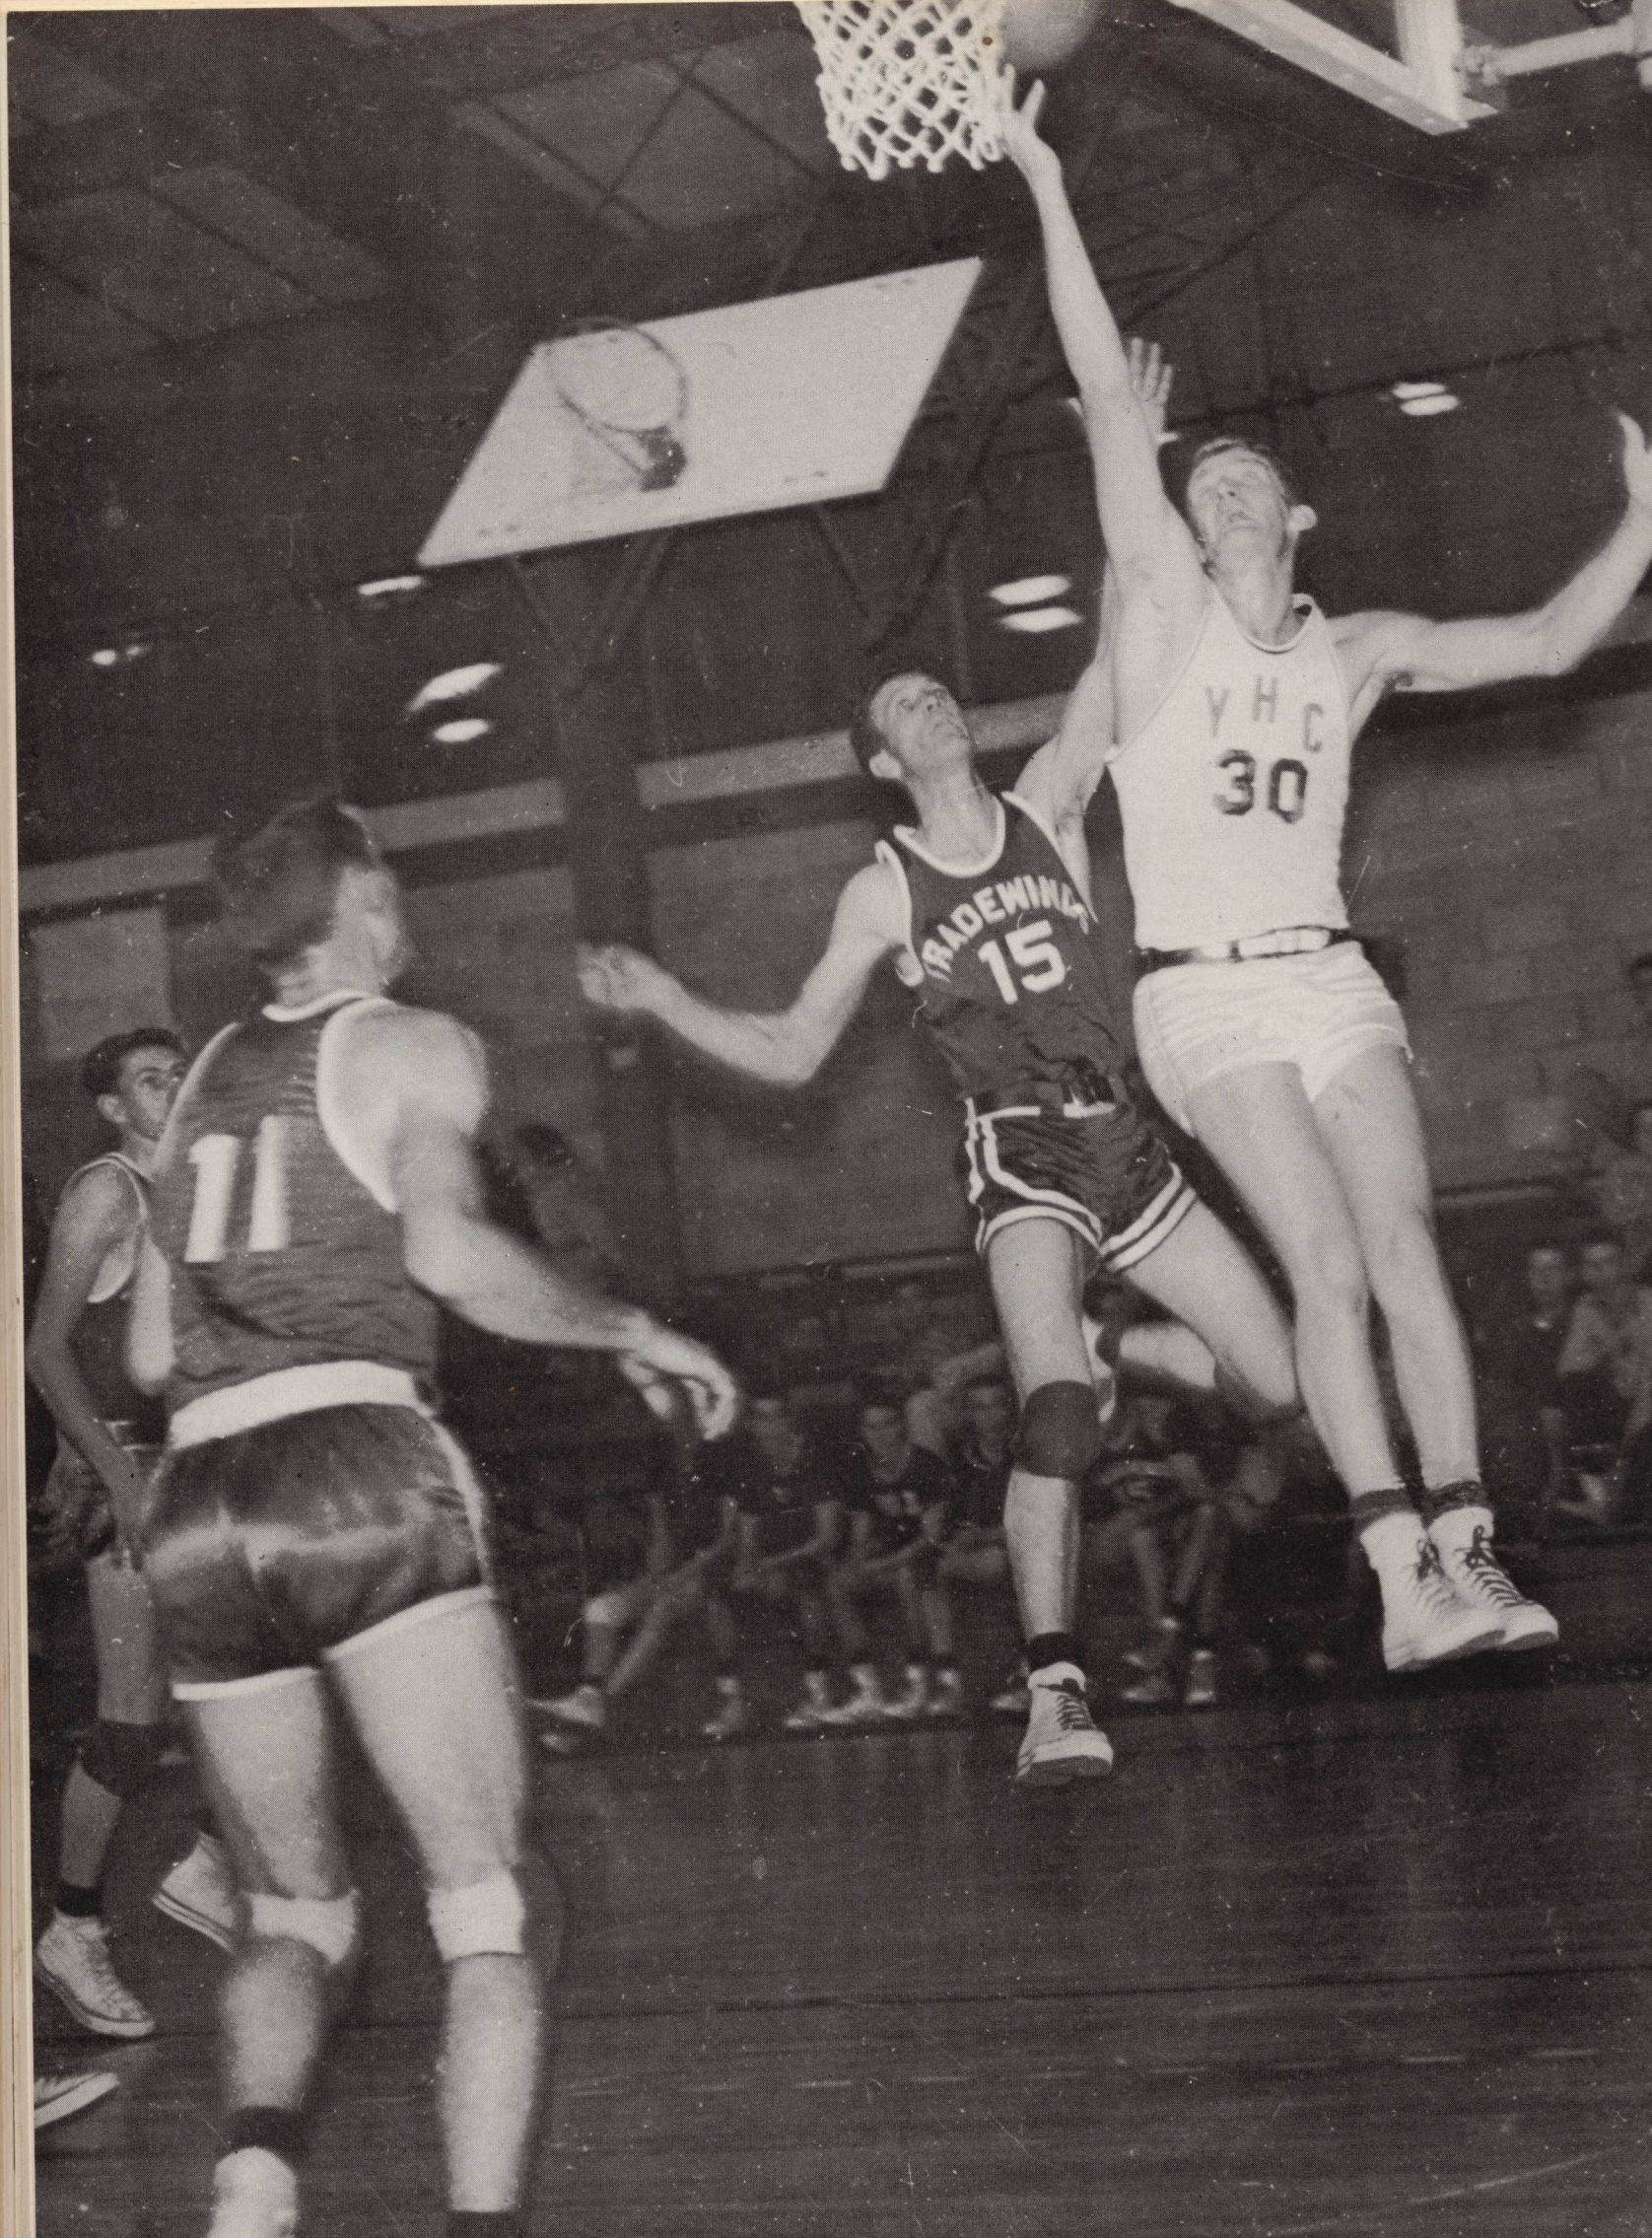

TOAST TO LIFE BEYOND: the cast in a final scene from "Outward Bound."

"... An then we're off to find
Athletic fields where we tried in games
For the prizes that we sometimes won ..."

The Young Harris Mountain Lions of 1958-59 completed another successful season with a total of 16 wins against 11 losses. During the season, the Lions compiled a total of 1,917 points for an average of 71 points per game.

The individual scoring honors were held by Jimmy Jones, James Cook, and Ray Hardman. Jones scored a total of 374 points for an average of 18.7. Cook scored a total of 236 for an average of 11.24, while Hardman hit for a total of 221 making an average of 10.52 points per game. The leading rebounders for the year were William Worley and Jimmy Jones.

The Enotah would like to give special recognition to the four players who have played their last season at Young Harris College. For their untiring efforts and outstanding contributions to the success of the Mountain Lions, we recognize Jimmy Jones, Phillip McLeroy, Terry Crouch, and James Cook.

The ENOTAH salutes these players for their fine records and congratulates the whole team for the high sportsmanship prevalent in all contest, both at home and away.

The Mercer Gymnasium, Mercer University, Macon, Georgia, again was the scene of the State Junior College Basketball Tournaments held in February 18-24. In the first game Young Harris defeated Abraham Baldwin 87-62. In the second game the Mountain Lions were defeated by Brewton Parker with a score of 68-51. The final contest for the Mountain Lions was the consolation game against Georgia Military College. The game proved to be an easy victory for Young Harris, the final score being 58-61. This victory won for the Mountain Lions third place in the State.

For their outstanding performances throughout the tournament Jimmy Jones and Henry Barnes were chosen "All State."

IN PURSUIT of the ball, Charlie Short uses time-saving strategy.

A GRAB; a fumble; a loss; a score.

"SKYHIGH"; players reach for the ball that orbits in the lighted space of a gymnasium.

THE CENTER of attention; the main attraction; the rebound.

REBOUND; seconds later.

A HIGH JUMP; an obstacle — time the essence of any sport.

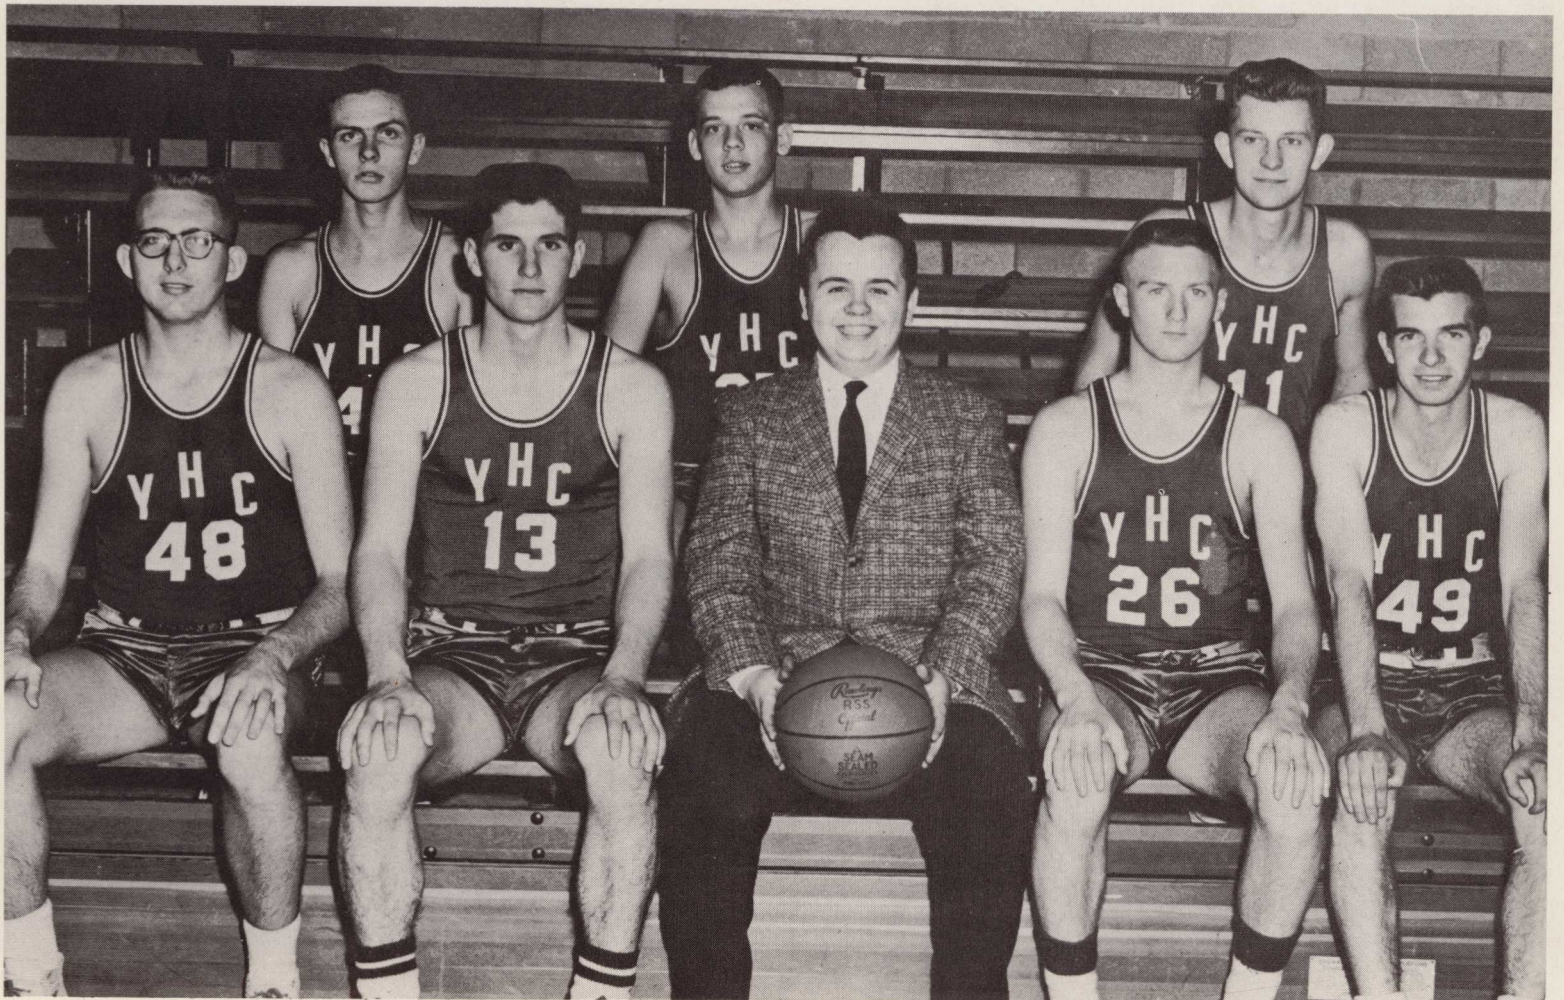

WITH TOUR DE FORCE, Jimmy Jones captures the ball from the Georgia Tech freshmen.

One of the hardest working groups on campus is the cheerleading squad. Through their hard work and efforts, they keep the Young Harris spirit alive in all the games. These ten students never cease to be full of pep and are held in high esteem by the members of the basketball team. Everyone—both cheerleaders and student body—will remember the yells and the fun that went into each basketball game. The Enotah compliments this cheerleading team for its enthusiasm and sportsmanship evident at all times.

CHEERLEADERS are a vital part of the athletic department. Their cheers are entertaining as well as contagious to the fans.

BOYS add masculinity to the sport of cheering.

"GO LIONS, GO!" is a favorite cheer of the fans. It is enthusiastically presented and received.

THE STAGE is the court; the danseurs are the players; the music is the din; the whole is the production; a drama — basketball!

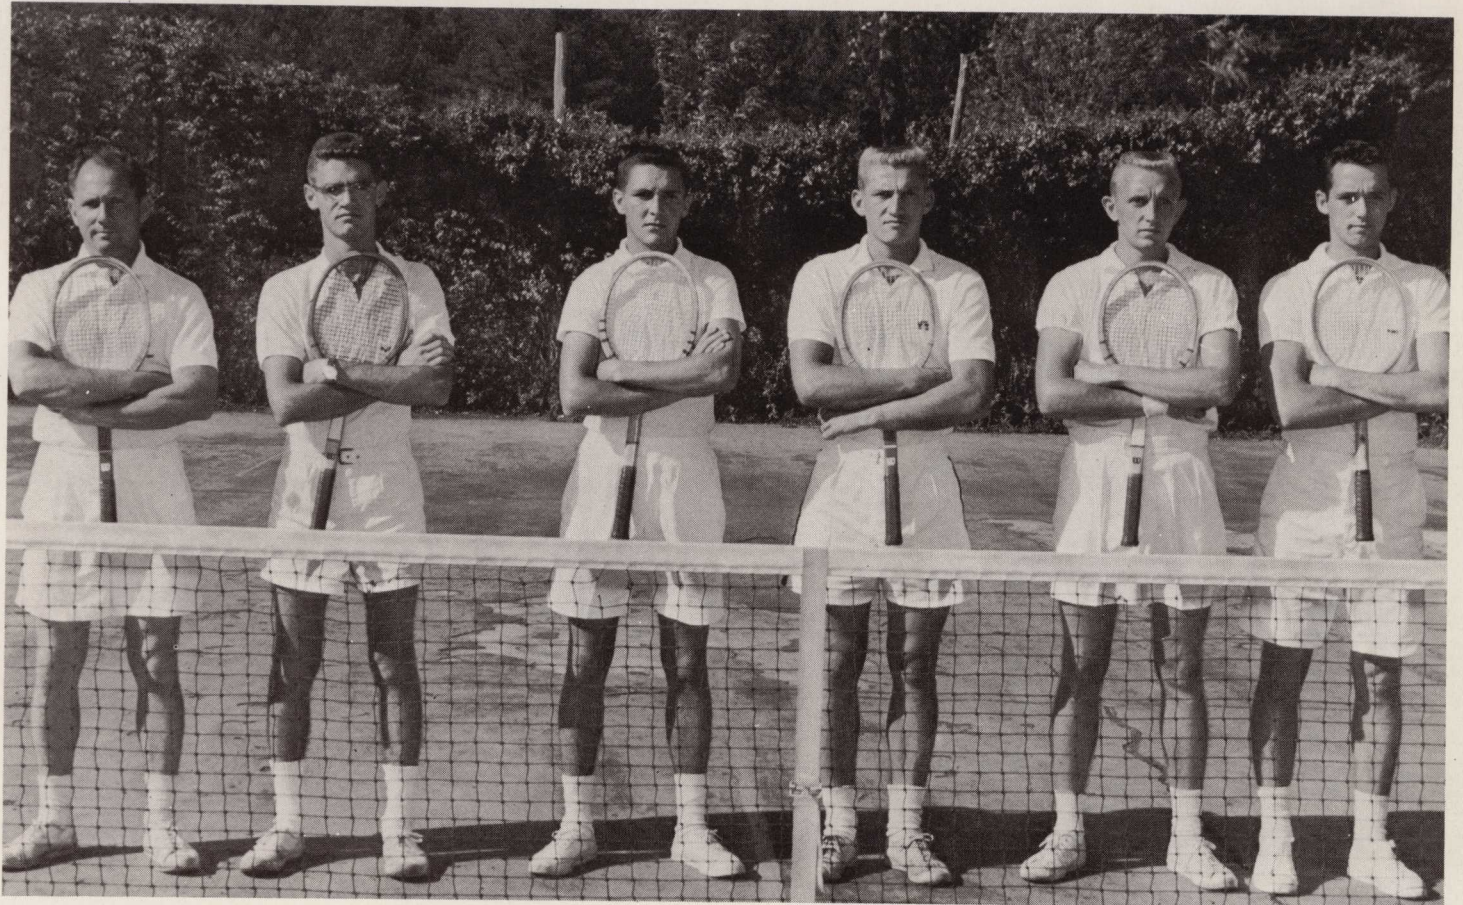

AN OBSTACLE; the over-powering force that determines the score.

A DRAMATIC ATTEMPT to capture the ball. Failure; success — the game of chance.

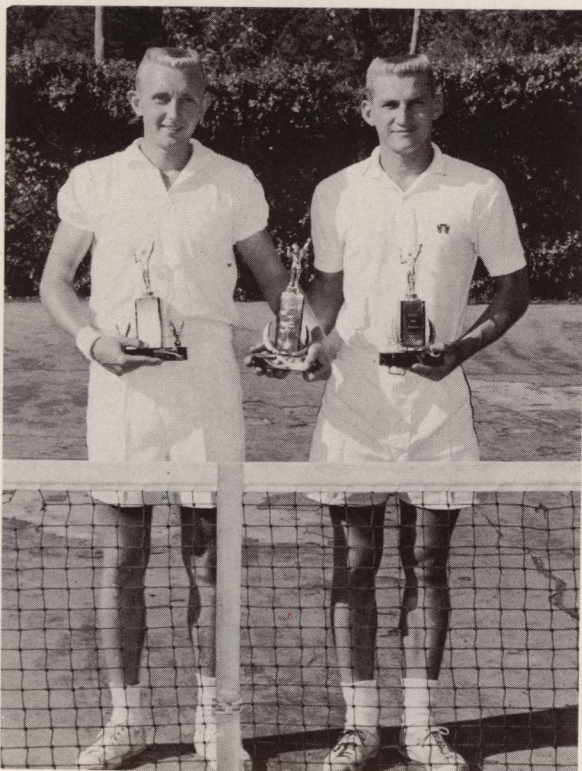

THE FOCAL POINT of every game is the goal.

MEMBERS of the 1958 net squad are Luke Rushton, Coach; Joe Gunnells, Gary Brantley, Carroll Tucker, John Ed Mathison, and Richard Winningham.

Another good year, 1958, saw Young Harris achieve state-wide recognition as the winner of the state singles and state doubles tennis meet.

JOHN ED MATHISON, champion of state singles, and CARROLL TUCKER, champions of the 1958 state doubles, display the coveted awards.

FORM; SKILL; coordination; the characteristics of tennis.

VARSITY TRACK

Track is new at Young Harris!

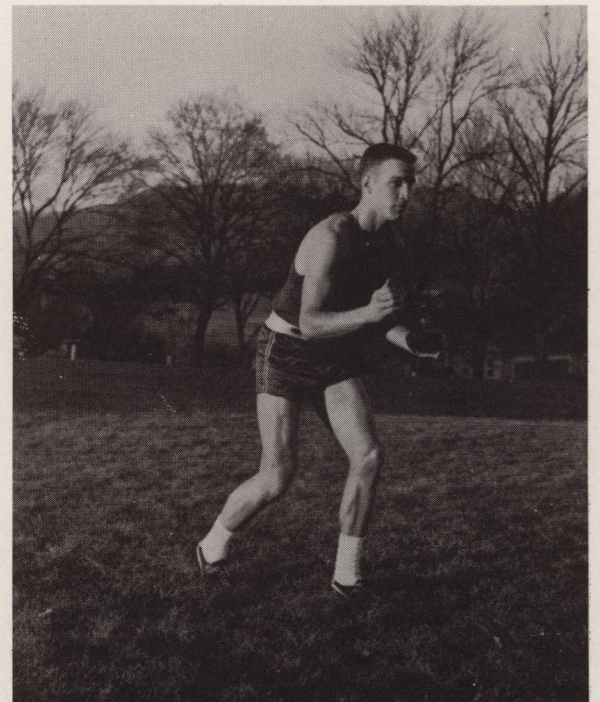

The enthusiasm which this inter-collegiate sport has received has greatly augmented its future.

1957-58 TRACK TEAM: First Row: Renfroe Watson, Jerry Watson, Morris Groover, Norman Broadwell. Second Row: Don Power, Larry Snead, Jimmy McDonald, John Barrett.

A POPULAR FEATURE of track; this pole vaulter makes a practice jump.

POISE; form; practice; the daily ritual of a track star.

FOOTBALL

Inter-society sports events combine athletes, skill, fans, rivalry: football—a word, a fancy, the society competition.

A LONG PASS; a long run; and an inevitable tackle.

A BALL; the point of no return; only time can reveal the outcome of an offensive play.

CHAOS; an amusing feature of football.

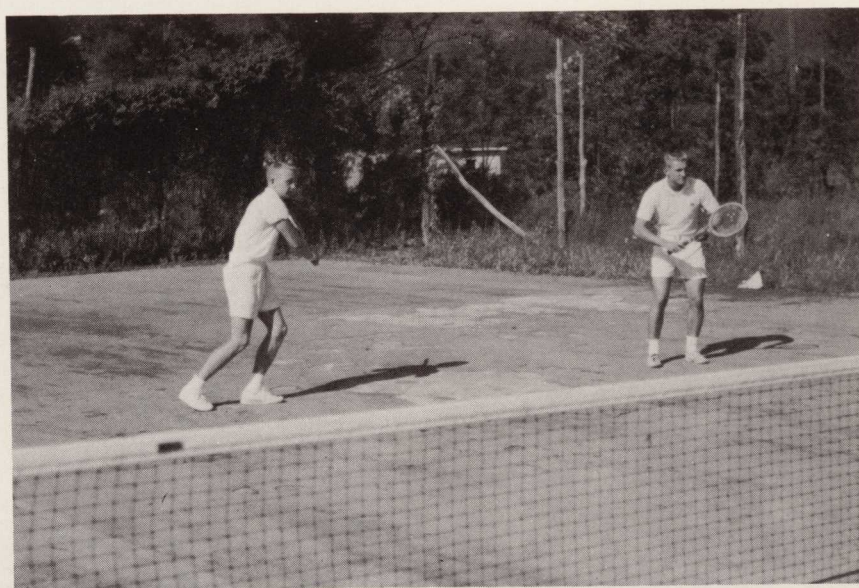

MINUTES; seconds; the goal post, then the finish.

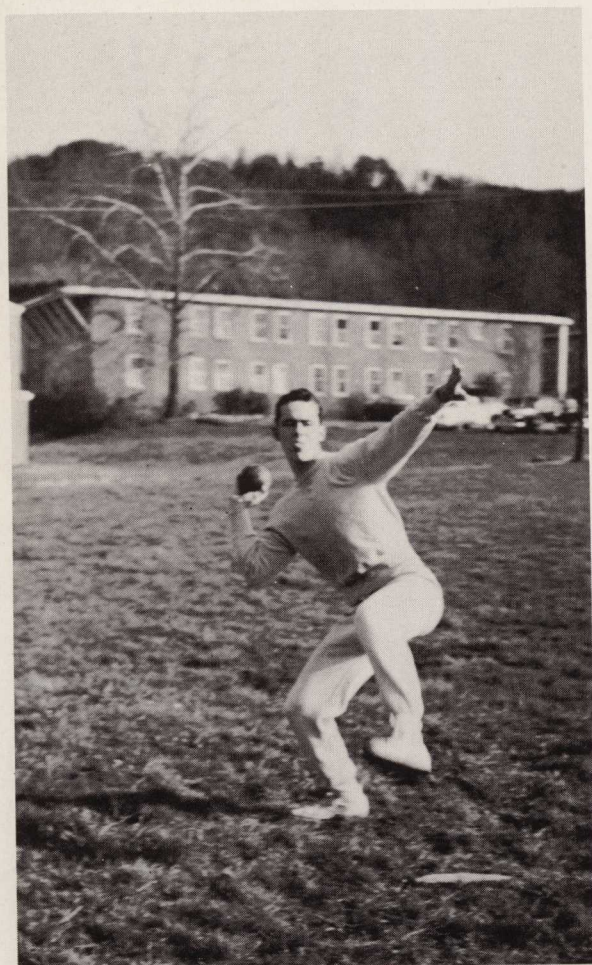

SPORTS

AN ADDED FEATURE at Young Harris is the physical education program.

TWO FOR TENNIS; the Young Harris team practices many hours and is rewarded for its work.

SEE THAT WINDOW! The "putt shot" aims for a high score.

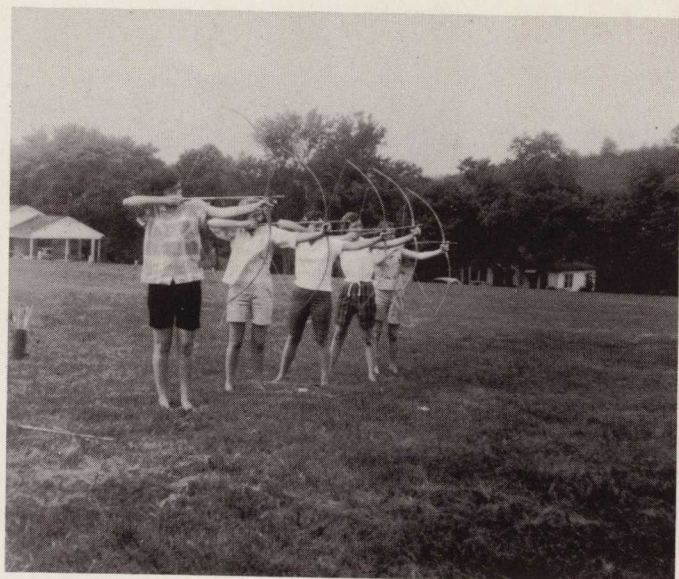

SPRING BRINGS BASEBALL; this sport is enjoyed by both spectators and athletes.

ACTIVITIES

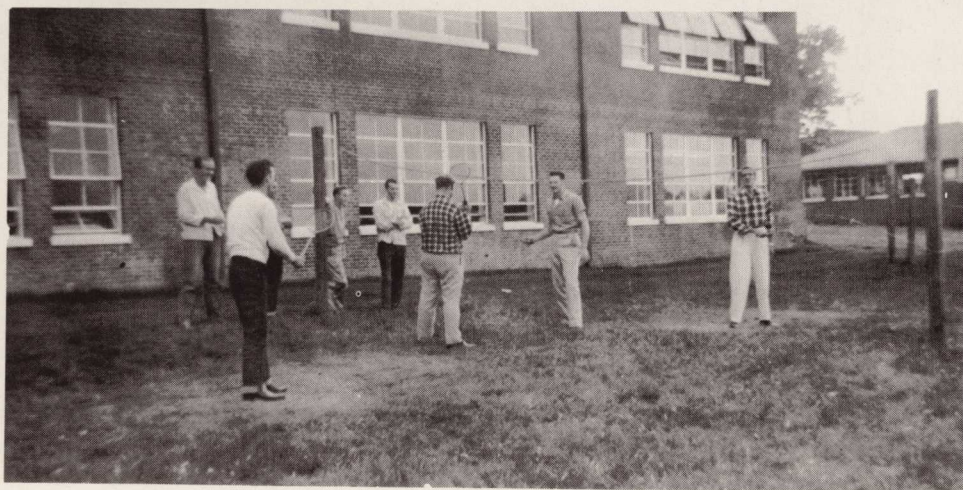

DEFENDERS OF MAN; the boys' archery skill is a reply to the girls' beckon.

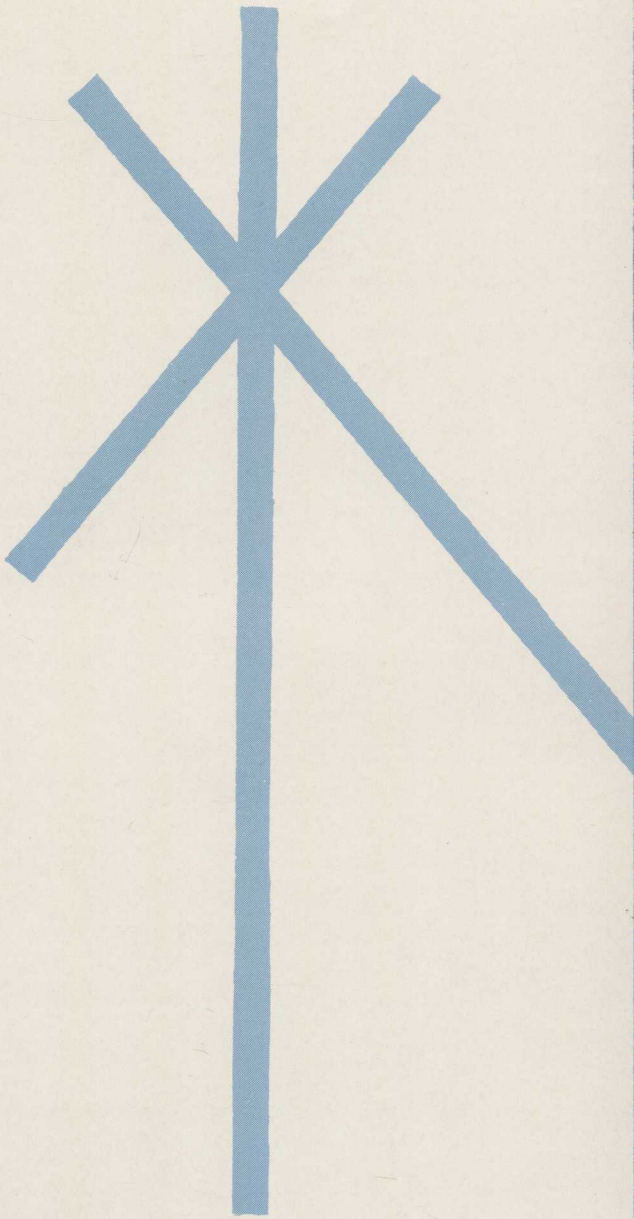

EMPLOYEES OF CUPID; archery is mastered by many girls, and it is a call to man.

A POSITIVE "RINGER"; Horseshoes is a sport that requires much skill and little energy.

WHERE IS THE "BIRDIE"? Badminton is a favorite summer evening sport

THIS BOOK AND MANY STEPS

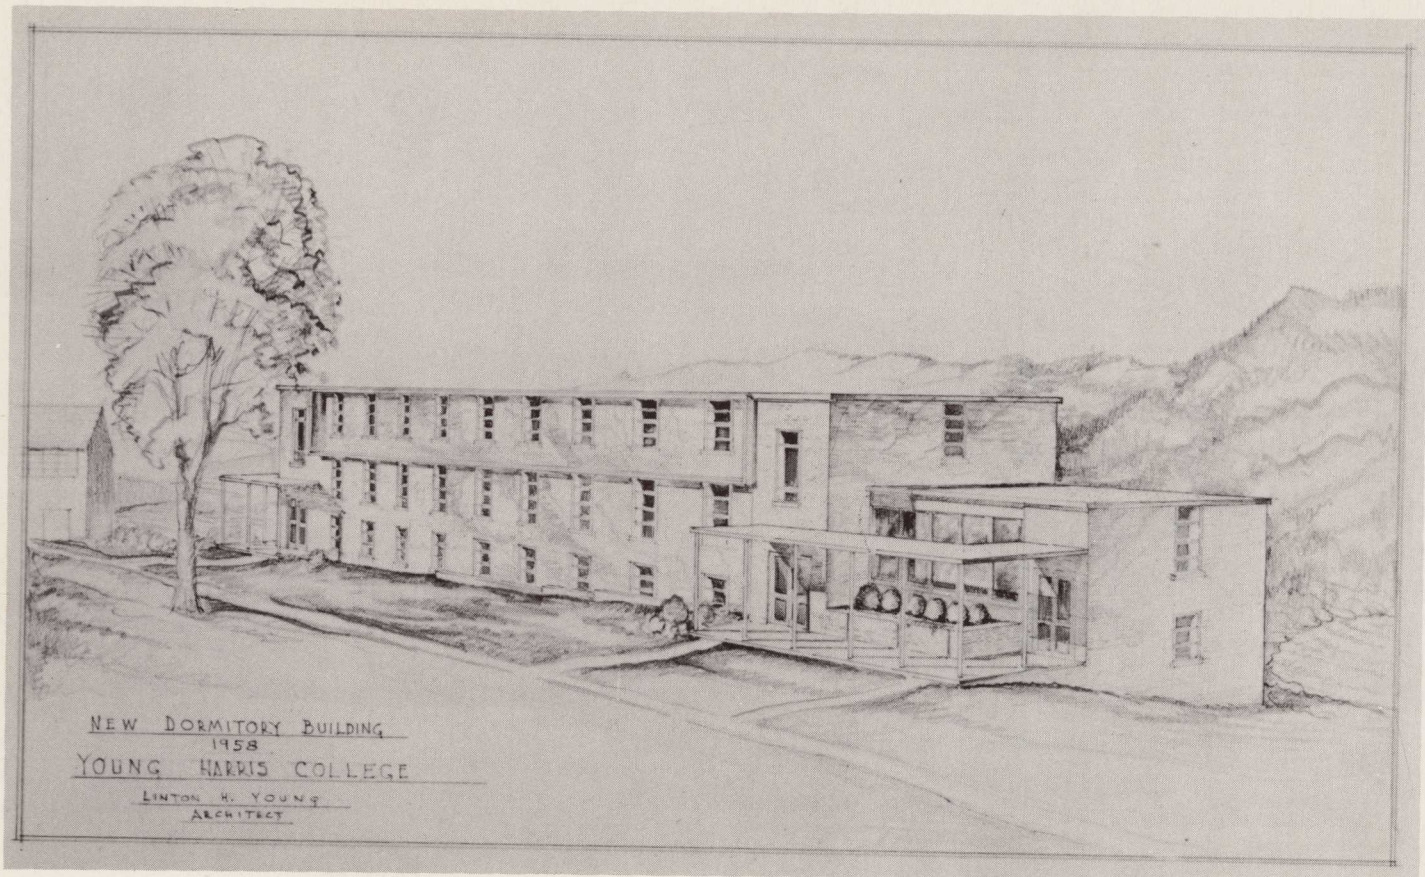

The many steps, the confusion, the excitement, and one-hundred fifty pages of memories that we have taken down memory lane comprise the 1959 ENOTAH. As the forces of our staff joined together in this cooperative venturesome assignment, we had a dream . . . a dream that after many steps, headaches, threats, fears, and disappointments the 1959 ENOTAH would be, at last, completed.

As time progressed, many harsh words were spoken; academic responsibilities sometimes went neglected; but from all of this emerged the 1959 ENOTAH, part of an education fulfilled.

The year is over, and the pages have been returned to you bound together in a cover of white and purple. The 1959 ENOTAH now lies before you.

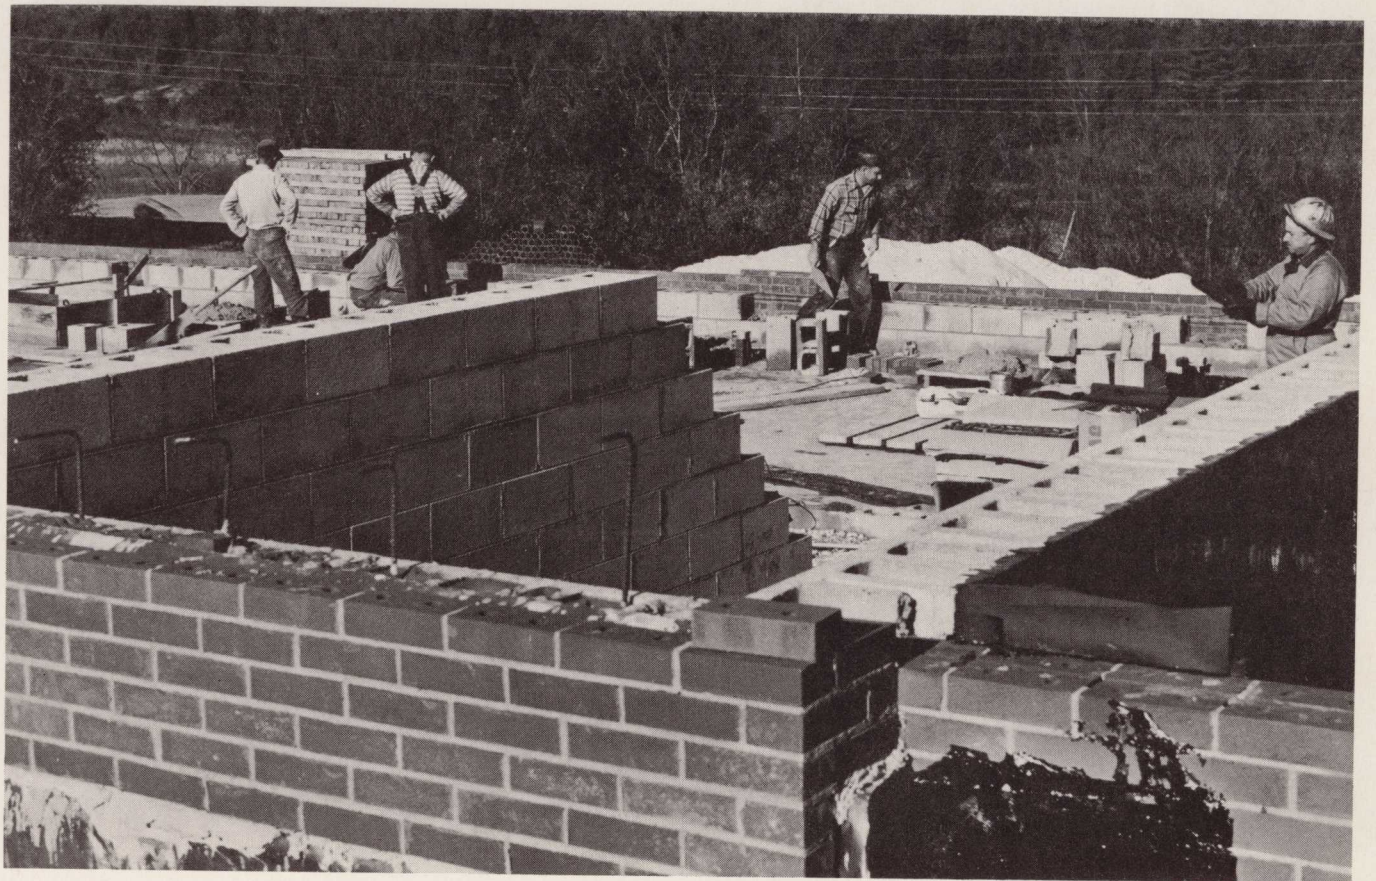

The staff of the 1959 ENOTAH would like to extend its sincere thanks to the many people who have given of their time so freely in order to make this publication possible—especially to our faculty advisor and other members of the faculty and administration. We particularly wish to express our appreciation to Mr. Claud Humphreys for the use of pictures included on the dedication page, the In Memoriam page, varsity tennis and varsity track pages.

NEW DORMITORY BUILDING
1958
YOUNG HARRIS COLLEGE
LINTON H. YOUNG
ARCHITECT

. . . to progress . . .

This year we have seen the construction of a new dormitory in the midst of our campus. This dormitory will be ready for use by fall quarter, 1959.

This new dormitory is not just an indication of progress, but it is a symbol of the constant stress on self improvement which has made Young Harris College outstanding.

To Alumni and Friends of Young Harris College:

Congratulations are again in order for the splendid progress Young Harris College has made.

The Citizens of Murphy and this Southwestern section of North Carolina have always taken a deep, personal pride and satisfaction in Young Harris College. That neighborly feeling still prevails, and we are indeed happy that this fine college has had another splendid year.

We are sending our congratulations to the graduating Seniors for a job well done, and we also extend to them our best wishes for their continued progress and success in the years to come.
