*laughter bellows from the depth of her vibrant soul, expressive, mobile hands gesture her hearty involvements with life,
an active, dedicated professor of life, she leads us down rocky, flowerlined paths to the unknown gardens of man's soul,
our own soul,
her beauty is as simple and inspiring as nature . . .*

one winter afternoon

(at the magical hour when is becomes if)

*a bespangled clown
standing on eighth street handed me a flower.*

nobody, it's safe to say, observed him but myself; and why? because without any doubt he was whatever (first and last) most people fear most:
a mystery for which i've no word except alive

— that is, completely alert
and miraculously whole:

with not merely a mind and a heart but unquestionably a soul — by no means funereally hilarious (or otherwise democratic) but essentially poetic
or ethereally serious:

a fine not a coarse clown (no mob, but a person)

and while never saying a word who was anything but dumb;
since the silence of him self sang like a bird.

most people have been heard screaming for international measures that render hell rational — i thank heaven somebody's crazy enough to give me a daisy.

e. e. cummings

the enotah

thank heaven someone's crazy enough to give you a daisy . .

Summary

*enduring beauty greets us, surrounds us,
permeating our friendships . . .
for we are never alone.
nature enfolds us in peaceful security.*

*fresh-tingling sparkles of water lure us into the mainstream of nature's essence:

*each one a snowflake,
an ice pattern,
beautiful alone . . .
dazzling when united in nature's design.*

gazing, straining at nature's purposeful course, we reflect her multiple depth.

multiple loyalties, even apathy are resolved in nature's eternal unity.

*sharing a dream for the future, we meet beneath nature's arbor . . .
at the crossroads.*
